

THE LAW

Requires districts and schools to prevent, monitor, and address incidents of discrimination or harassment, including but not limited to bullying, taunting and intimidation through:

- Designation of a Dignity Act Coordinator to be trained in non-discriminatory instructional and counseling methods and in handling human relationships
- Staff training to raise awareness and sensitivity of school employees to issues of harassment and discrimination
- Sensitivity and tolerance curricula for students
- Revising the code of conduct to create a school environment free from harassment and discrimination
- Reporting of bullying incidents to the state through designated reporting system
