At least two $1,000.00 Scholarships will be awarded to students who have had personal experience with homelessness. Students must be a current resident of Nassau or Suffolk County (unless already enrolled in college or trade school elsewhere, with a previous residence in Nassau or Suffolk Counties), and have attended elementary, middle and/or high school in Nassau or Suffolk Counties.

Applicants must enroll in a full-time undergraduate course of study or other licensed vocational program no later than the fall session of 2023.

Complete packages must be received by 12:00 p.m. on Friday, June 10 and must include each of the following:

- Student Application
- Letter(s) of Recommendation
- Essay
- School Transcript; documentation of GED Completion (if applicable)
- Signed release (we will only release the names and photos, as applicable, of awardees)

INCOMPLETE AND LATE PACKAGES WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.

HOW SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS ARE CHOSEN

- Grade point average 2.0 or higher (“C” average)
- Quality of essay
- Letter(s) of recommendation – minimum of two are required
- Review and selection by the Helen Martin Scholarship Committee

IF YOU ARE SELECTED TO RECEIVE A SCHOLARSHIP

- You will be notified by July 31, 2022.
- AWARDEES ARE ENCOURAGED (NOT REQUIRED) TO PARTICIPATE IN A VIRTUAL SESSION AT THE KEYS FOR THE HOMELESS CONFERENCE. DETAILS TO BE DISCUSSED UPON AWARD.
- You must enroll in an accredited or licensed institution by the fall term of the 2023 school year and provide documentation of such enrollment no later than September 30, 2023. If not, you will forfeit your scholarship and, if possible, it will be awarded to an alternate recipient.
- Scholarship funds will be credited to your student account after documentation of your enrollment is received. Please note that funds cannot be given directly to the student!
